

Steven L. Brinker

Steve is a partner with the firm and Chair of the Business Law Group. He focuses on corporate and business law and assists clients with the formation, financing and development of business entities, including corporations, limited liability companies and partnerships. He also represents businesses and their owners in transactions including mergers, stock sales and asset sales.

As part of his transactional practice, Steve advises medical practices and health care providers on transactional and operational issues unique to the health care field.

Steve's experience as a tax attorney allows him to advise business clients in tax law matters, including the tax consequences of mergers, acquisitions and other business transactions, and help develop a plan to address and mitigate negative tax consequences. His practice also includes advising tax-exempt entities in all aspects of corporate and federal tax law, including obtaining and retaining federal tax-exempt status.
