

Christine Ganley McMurdo

Christine is a litigation associate at Crenshaw, Ware & Martin. She received her B.A. from Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut and her J.D. from George Mason University School of Law in Arlington, Virginia. While in law school, Christine served as Senior Articles Editor of the George Mason Law Review, and won both of the George Mason Law Review's annual awards -- the Arthur Schmalz Award, which is awarded for the best Write-On Competition submission, and the Adrian S. Fisher Award, which is awarded for the best note or comment. Christine also received the Burton Award for Distinguished Legal Writing in 2015. Following law school, Christine clerked for the Honorable Stephen C. Shannon of the Fairfax County Circuit Court, and practiced as a civil litigation attorney in Fairfax, Virginia before relocating to Norfolk in 2018.
