

Andrea Dunlap

Andrea Dunlap serves clients across the healthcare, business, domestic relations, and general litigation sectors throughout Hampton Roads. She represents individuals and entities in matters pending before the General District, Juvenile and Domestic Relations, and Circuit Courts, and is known for her practical legal insight and unwavering advocacy.

Andrea's background in public interest law laid the foundation for her work in complex litigation, particularly in landlord-tenant matters under the Virginia Residential Landlord and Tenant Act, family law disputes involving equitable distribution, custody, support, and visitation, as well as administrative and public benefits law. Her litigation experience spans both trial-level disputes and pre-trial resolution strategies.
